NAVRATRI CELEBRATION

Gyanodaya Shishu Mandir celebrated the vibrant festival of Navratri with great devotion, joy, and enthusiasm. Our little learners celebrated Navratri with great enthusiasm, dressed in colourful traditional attire and participating in joyful Garba. The school premises were filled with festive spirit, happiness, and excitement as children enjoyed the celebration with their friends and teachers.

The celebration reflected the rich cultural heritage of India and highlighted the victory of good over evil.

The celebration became even more lively as students participated in Garba, the traditional folk dance of Gujarat. Dressed in colourful traditional attire, they danced to festive music with great excitement and energy, creating a joyful and vibrant atmosphere throughout the school.

Such celebrations play an important role in creating cultural awareness among young learners and nurturing a sense of pride in our traditions. The Navratri celebration was a joyful and memorable experience, making learning more meaningful and enjoyable for our little stars.

The Navratri celebration concluded on a joyful note, spreading the message of unity, positivity, faith, and the eternal victory of good over evil.
